

such alleged offense, pray a jury trial upon the part of the State, it shall be the duty of said justice to commit such alleged offender for trial in the Circuit Court for Montgomery County, at its then session, if it be in session, or its next session if it be not then in session, and to return said commitment or recognizance, with the name and names or residence of the witnesses for the prosecution indorsed thereon, forthwith to the Clerk of the Circuit Court, and the said justice shall inform the person charged of his right to a jury trial; and on receipt of the recognizance sent up by the justice the clerk shall place the same on the appeal docket and issue a subpoena for the witnesses named by the justice, and the case shall be tried on the information or the warrant as if on appeal; and if on waiver of jury trial before the justice and trial before him either party shall feel aggrieved, there shall be a right of appeal to the Circuit Court for Montgomery County, in case the judgment of the justice is against the accused and he shall appeal. He shall enter into recognizance with security to be approved by said justice, and in every such case the appeal shall be taken within ten days after the judgment entered: provided, however, that any person charged with any of the above-named offenses may at any time before trial before said justice waive a hearing and ask in writing to be admitted to bail or committed in order that the grand jury for Montgomery county at the next term of the Circuit Court for said county may investigate the charge against him, her or them, in which event said justice of the peace shall comply with the law providing for committing or bailing of parties held for the action of the grand jury.

SEC. 5. Be it enacted, That the several justices of the peace of the said Montgomery county shall have all that civil and criminal jurisdiction had and possessed by them, on the first day of January, 1910, and all laws in force at that time relating to the powers, duties, authority and jurisdiction of the said justices of the peace of the said Montgomery county are hereby declared to be of full force and effect, and this act shall in no wise be construed to take away any of that civil or criminal jurisdiction had by the said justices of the peace of the said Montgomery county on the day and year last mentioned aforesaid, provided, however, that in all cases over which the said justices of the peace have jurisdiction the said Police Justice shall likewise have concurrent jurisdiction.

SEC. 6. Be it enacted, That whenever any warrant is sworn out before any of the said justices of the peace for any offense committed in said county, which offense the said justice of